

Bachelor Admission REQUIREMENTS

Find more about our Master programs on our website

You will need to submit the following documents to apply for a bachelor's degree in digitalisation

General qualification for university entrance

School Leaving Certificate (equivalent to German „Abitur“)/ A Levels / IB Diploma or Equivalent

XU University Entrance Exam + TESTAS

Secondary High School Diploma + Transcripts

Certificate of completion of a Technical Secondary School (equivalent to German „Fachabitur“) or

Subject related university entrance qualification

Vocational diploma + Completed vocational education

Certificate from an upper trade school in combination with the completion of an apprenticeship (at least two years) (Equivalent to the German “Höhere Handelsschule” and “Berufsausbildung”) or

You will need to submit the following documents to apply for a bachelor's degree in digitalisation

Entrance qualification for a technical secondary school + Internship

Certificate of technical secondary school in combination with an approved internship (at least one year). (Equivalent to the German Fachoberschulreife + gymnasiale Oberstufe + Praktikum) or

Other

Certificates that allow admission for universities of applied sciences

English Language Requirements

As all degree programs are taught in English, proof of a language level in English of at least B2 is required. Applicants with a German (Fach-)Abitur generally do not need to provide additional proof. B2 level proficiency (according to CEFR), to be proven through commonly recognized test such as IELTS, TOEFL, Cambridge certificate. The specified scores below are minimum admissions requirements.

IELTS

Required minimum overall test score of 6.0

TOEFL

Required minimum test scores: TOEFL IBT (60 - 78) PBT (546 - 548)

Cambridge

Certificate of Advance English (CAE)

TOEIC Listening and Reading Test

Required minimum test score of 605 -780

Telc B2 Certificates

Duolingo Score

Required minimum test score of 105 – 115

or

English was the language of instruction schooling to achieve university admission acquired by the candidate.

Bachelor Degree APPLICATION

Find more about our
Master programs on
our website

To apply for and be enrolled into a bachelor's degree in digitalisation, you will need to submit the following matriculation documents

Certified physical copy of your high school entrance qualification

Notarized certificate of general higher education entrance qualification, subject-related higher education entrance qualification or higher technical education entrance qualification or a comparable foreign qualification (e.g. Abitur, A-Levels, IB Diploma, High School Diploma or Secondary Certificate or vocational training certificate)

Signed study contract

Signed payment plan

Except students that fund their studies through Brain Capital

To apply for and be enrolled into a bachelor's degree in digitalisation, you will need to submit the following matriculation documents

Health insurance certificate

Or exemption from the statutory health insurance for those who are privately insured

Filled and signed request for matriculation

For Applicants holding International University Entrance Qualifications

Fill in the Online Application form to register and submit the following documents with your application:

All pages of your university entrance qualifications

E.g. Abitur, A Levels, IB Diploma or High School Diploma + Transcripts

Current CV in tabular form

1-2 pages

Proof of English proficiency

At least B2 according to the CEFR

Recommendation Letter

The XU Admissions Team will get back to you with feedback regarding the next steps.

To apply for and be enrolled into a bachelor's degree in digitalisation, you will need to submit the following matriculation documents

Evaluation of your application documents by XU Admissions Team

Once our admissions team has evaluated your eligibility to study at a German university, XU will do a final evaluation of your eligibility for your chosen degree program at XU.

In case you need to take our Internal University Entrance Exam and TESTAS, our Admission Team will Inform you on the next steps

Admission and Enrolment

After we have received all required information from you, we're evaluating your eligibility for your chosen program. If the decision is positive, we'll issue an official admissionletter as well as the study contract.

